Finally, I caught up with him and passed him by. I felt so good. "I win," I thought. "Even though he didn't even know we were racing (比赛)."

B.

Isn't it just like life? We often focus on competing with others, trying to show that we are better than them. We spend our time and energy chasing after them and we miss out on our own paths in life. The problem with unhealthy competition is that it's a never-ending cycle. There will always be somebody ahead of you. So stay focused and live a healthy life. Run your own race and wish others well.

C.

However, after I passed him, I realized that I had been so focused on (集中注意力于.....) competing against him that I had missed my turn. I had gone nearly six blocks (街区) past it and had to turn around and go back.

D.

I had about 1 kilometer to go on the road before turning off. So I started cycling faster and faster. After a few minutes I was only about 100 meters behind him, so I really picked up the pace and pushed myself.

E.

I was cycling (骑自行车) one day and noticed a person in front of me, about 250 meters ahead. I could tell he was cycling a little slower than me and I decided to catch up with him.

Once upon a time, a princess needed saving. So, a prince came along to save her. After fighting against the evil witch(邪恶的女巫), they lived happily ever after. That's the story we all know.

Yet, the TV show Once Upon a Time tells a different story. In it, Snow White and Prince Charming live together but life is not perfect. They live normal (普通的) lives. They argue (吵架), they eat lunch with friends, and evil wizards are still there. The Evil Queen sends them to the human world. She becomes the mayor (市长) of a new town and adopts (收养) a boy. And the boy turns out to be Snow White and Prince Charming's grandson. Are you confused (困惑的) yet?

I thought the show was strange when I first watched it last year, but I quickly came to love the show. It tells the story of the fairy tale characters (童话角色) we know and love. It includes Tinker Bell, Peter Pan, and Red Riding Hood – as they fight against evil across different worlds, like Neverland and Oz.

I may not be a child anymore, but I found this show perfect for both teenagers and adults (成年人). Romantic stories and funny plots keep the whole family happy. That is what I call a happy ending.

根据上面的文段回答下面问题:

1. What didn't happen in the original (原本的) Snow White story?

- A. A princess needed saving. B. A prince saved the princess.
C. There was an evil witch. D. The princess and the prince often argued.
2. In the TV show Once Upon a Time, _____.
- A. Snow White and Prince Charming live normal lives
B. there are no evil wizards
C. they have no friends
D. the Evil Queen adopts the couple's son
3. How did the writer feel about the show at first?
- A. It was interesting. B. It was strange.
C. She loved it at once. D. She hated the change.
4. Which character (人物) doesn't the passage mention?
- A. Tinker Bell B. Peter Pan C. Cinderella D. Red Riding Hood
5. Which word isn't be used to describe (描述) the TV show Once Upon a Time?
- A. perfect B. funny C. happy D. wonderful

My mother only had one eye. I never wanted her to show up at my school. One day during elementary school, I was terribly ill. 1.

"Your mom only has one eye!" yelled some of my classmates. I wished my mother would have just disappeared (消失).

"If you embarrass (使……尴尬) me, why don't you just die?" I shouted at her, talking no notice of the sad look on her face. 2.

At that time, I didn't think I had hurt her feelings very much. That night I saw my mom crying in her room. Even so, I hated her tear from one eye. 3.

Years later my dream came true. 4. _____ I never thought of going back to see my "ugly" mother until one day I got a letter.

"My son I'm sorry I only have one eye. When you were little, you got into an accident and lost your eye. As a mom, I couldn't stand watching you live with only one eye. 5. _____ I was never angry with you and I never regretted (后悔) it because I love you."

I cried out aloud. Only then did I realize (意识到) how beautiful my mother was!
把下列句子还原回文章，使其文理通顺。

- A. I was quite successful.
